

Department of Commerce figures show about 5.6 million pounds of ascorbic acid entering the US between January and November 1971, up about 160 percent from the amount imported here during the same period in 1970.

Chemical Marketing Reporter

Vol. 201 No. 6 100 Church St., New York, N.Y. 10007 February 7, 1972