

A 5 percent annual growth rate projected for ascorbic, is considered a bit low by some sources in the market. It's pointed out that the historical rate over the decade of the 1960's was in excess of 6 percent per year.

Chemical Marketing Reporter

Vol. 202 No. 19

100 Church St., New York, N.Y. 10007

November 6, 1972