text = otium si essem consecutus, Fundania, commodius tibi haec scriberem, quae nunc, ut potero, exponam cogitans esse properandum, quod, ut dicitur, si est homo bulla, eo magis senex.

text_en = If leisure had been granted to me, Fundania, I would write these things to you more suitably; these things I shall now explain, insofar as I am able, thinking that one must make haste; for, as they say, if man is a bubble, an old man even more so.

text_fr = Si du loisir m'avait été accordé, Fundania, je t'écirais ces choses plus commodément ; celles-ci, maintenant, je les exposerai dans la mesure où je le pourrai, pensant qu'il faut se hâter ; car, comme on le dit, si l'homme est une bulle, le vieillard l'est encore davantage.

text_fi = Jos minulle olisi suotu vapaa-aikaa, Fundania, kirjoittaisin sinulle kunnollisemmin nämä asiat, jotka nyt, sikäli kuin pystyn, selitän ajatellen, että on pidettävä kiirettä; sillä, kuten sanotaan, jos ihminen on kupla, vanhus vielä enemmän.

alt_note = Combined Varronian-period analysis. The semicolon is treated as a weak editorial boundary. The clause "quod ii parentes magni dicuntur" is analysed as an explanatory gloss on the Jupiter-Tellus pair rather than as a straightforward adjunct of "appellatur".
